FACTS	WHAT DOES THE FIRST NATIONAL BA BROKEN ARROW DO WITH YOUR PER		OF Rev. 9/2015
Why?	Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.
What?	The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include: - Social Security number and Account balances - Payment history and Transaction history - Credit history and Account transactions When you are no longer our customer, we continue to share your information as described in this notice.
How?	All financial companies need to share customers' personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customers' personal information; the reasons The First National Bank and Trust Company of Broken Arrow chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.
Reasons v	ve can share your personal information	Does The First National Bank and Trust Company of Broken Arrow share?	Can you limit this sharing?
For our everyday business purposes—such as to process your transactions, maintain your account(s), respond to court orders and legal investigations, or report to credit bureaus		Yes	No
For our marketing purposes to offer our products and services to you		Yes	No
For joint marketing with other financial companies		No	We don't share
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes information about your transactions and experiences		No	We don't share
For our affiliates' everyday business purposesinformation about your creditworthiness		No	We don't share

No

We don't share

For nonaffiliates to market to you

Call 918-251-5371 or go to www.fnbba.com

Questions?

Page 2
Who we are
Who is providing this notice?		The First National Bank and Trust Company of Broken Arrow
What we do
How does The First National Bank and Trust Company of Broken Arrow protect my personal information?		To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings. We also maintain other physical, electronic and procedural safeguards to protect this information and we limit access to information to those employees for whom access is appropriate.
How does The First National Bank and Trust Company of Broken Arrow collect my personal information?		We collect your personal information, for example, when you Open an account or Apply for a loan Pay your bills or Make deposits or withdrawals from your account Use your credit or debit card We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.
Why can't I limit all sharing?		Federal law gives you the right to limit only - sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposesinformation about your creditworthiness - affiliates from using your information to market to you - sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you
	_	State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.
Definitions
Affiliates		Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies. - The First National Bank and Trust Company of Broken Arrow does not share with our affiliates.
Nonaffiliates	Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies.

can market to you.

services to you.

Joint marketing

- The First National Bank and Trust Company of Broken Arrow does not share with nonaffiliates so they

A formal agreement between nonaffiliated financial companies that together market financial products or

- The First National Bank and Trust Company of Broken Arrow doesn't jointly market.